*If YOU love music,
this is for you!*

Songschool's Creative English Workshop is happening in El Prat De Llobregat this Summer (June 28 - July 9). Designed for secondary school students who are interested in writing & recording songs, performing them at a concert, making a video, learning about music technology, meeting people who love music as much as they do, not to mention forming bands & having fun!

what they say

What the Students say...

"The week was wicked! You really made the workshops more enjoyable by the friendly atmosphere."

"Summer Songschool is excellent. It's a great opportunity to meet new people and have a brilliant time!"

"It was probably the best thing I did all year."

"Songschool really helped me to become confident about my song writing."

What the Parents say...

"The Songschool programme was outstanding and exceeded my expectations. My children, in the short period of time, were intensely engaged, motivated and extremely productive in their learning... also greatly touched by your tutors' abilities to improve their techniques... they thoroughly enjoyed every minute of it."
